

The Captioning is possible but the local station often has very poor or even illegible captioning. Even national stations seem to be very lax in their standards. I am unable to "listen" to news or weather often. Due to where we live and what we do, that lack of weather news can be life or livelihood threatening.